Dear parent/carer,

After the Easter holidays, year 11 will be continuing to complete assessments which will contribute towards their final grades in English Literature and Language.

Any students who have not read 'An Inspector Calls' by J. B. Priestley or 'Heroes' by Robert Cormier, will need to ensure they have read these set texts before they return on the 12th of April. These texts were studied/revised during remote learning, so this is an opportunity for any students who didn't/couldn't engage to now catch-up. Below are links to online copies of these two texts. If you would prefer to buy hard copies, they are also readily available to purchase online.

An Inspector Calls:

Furthermore, in preparation for their assessments in English we would advise downloading the Herio APP, where they can access walking talking mocks for both their English Language and Literature assessments. They can also go to the WJEC site and access past papers and resources for their GCSEs.

Finally, I hope you have found this information to be useful and we thank you for your continuing support.

On behalf of the English Faculty,

Mrs. Laura Davies

(Head of English)
